'Tis the Season

The Sun is shining, the water is warming and it is the start of the dive season—bring it on!. We've already had a great start to the season and with a dive trip planned for this week end we'll soon be in full swing. With many people choosing to holiday in the UK this year, we can hopefully show people just how magnificent the UK waters really are. You don't have to go to tropical waters to see vibrant colours and sea life—we've got it all here. There's plenty of diving for all levels and if it's fascinating fish life or amazing wrecks you're hoping to find, you'll find it here. Don't forget to check the dive trip list in the shop, and with Plymouth coming up this summer, book now to avoid disappoint-

SCAPA FLOW PLACES

Due to an incredible response to the Scapa Flow Trip we managed to charter an additional boat. There re still a few places left but you'll have to hurry to book your place!
