In These Trying Times!

500 try dives in just 6 days!!!. Yes, it is possible and was an incredible success. Our impressive stand at the National Boat Caravan and Outdoor show at the NEC at the end of February attracted hundreds of people everyday with many signing up for a free try dive. With a 5 metre pool, plenty of spacious changing room and banners and posters galore, we have attracted a great deal of interest from people enquiring about the courses that we offer. We also collected money for the RNLI and raised over £420.00. It was an incredibly hectic week but definitely worth it!
