Dive Show 2009

What a nice surprise

to see so many familiar faces at this years dive show!. With the try dive pool, we were in a prime location to talk to people interested in diving or furthering their diving qualifications. The try dive pool was as busy as ever and attracted a large crowd particularly when the free divers took over for a breath hold competition. It was also great see Punta Divers from Ibiza at the show with us. We've come away with some excellent feedback and great interest in courses we offer!.Everybody seemed to enjoy the try dive pool and it was great to see such a vast age range taking part and showing an interest! See you there next year!
